This Week's

Graduation Reviewing Officer

Brigadier Gen. Joseph J. McMnamin

Reviewing today’s graduation is Brig. Gen. Joseph J. McMnamin, commanding general, MCRD/ERR Parris Island.

Brigadier Gen. McMnamin received a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Villanova University in May 1974. He was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps via the Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps program.

Completing The Basic School in December 1974, he was assigned to 2nd Bn., 9th Marines, 3rd Marine Division, Okinawa, Japan, where he served as the 81mm Mortar Platoon Commander and Headquarters & Service Company Executive Officer.

Returning from Okinawa in February 1976, he was assigned to Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, where he served as a series officer, battalion adjutant and regimental adjutant.

In October 1979, he transferred to the 1st Marine Division, Camp Pendleton, Ca., where he served as the Weapons Co. commander and the battalion fire support coordinator with the 2nd Bn., 7th Marines for three years. Following this tour, he attended Amphibious Warfare School at Quantico, Va.

After completing Amphibious Warfare School, Brig. Gen. McMnamin reported to The Basic School where he served as a tactics instructor, tactics section chief, student company commander and assistant tactics group chief.

Selected for recruiting duty, he served as the commanding officer of Recruiting Station, Cincinnati, from June 1986 to June 1989. After recruiting duty, he attended Marine Corps Command and Staff College.

Completing school in June 1990, he then served an air-ground exchange tour with the 1st Marine Aircraft Wing in Okinawa, Japan.

Returning to the United States in July 1991, he was initially assigned as the G-3 training officer of the 2nd Marine Division, Camp Lejeune, N.C. He later assumed command of the 2nd Light Armored Infantry Bn. in July 1992.

Completing this assignment in February 1994, he completed his tour with the 2nd Marine Division as the Assistant Chief of Staff, Readiness.

Following his tour with the 2nd Marine Division, he attended the Naval War College in June 1994. Graduating with a Master of Arts Degree in Strategic Studies and National Security Affairs in May 1995, he reported for joint duty with the U.S. Central Command, serving as the strategy branch chief and division chief, Policy and Strategy Division in the J-5 Plans and Policy Directorate.

In June 1999, he reported for duty as the commanding officer of the 6th Marine Corps District. He relinquished command of the 6th Marine Corps District June 26, 2001.

Brigadier Gen. McMnamin’s military decorations include the Defense Superior Service Medal, Legion of Merit Medal, Bronze Star Medal with Combat “V,” Meritorious Service Medal, Joint Service Commendation Medal, Joint Service Achievement Medal, Navy Achievement Medal and the Combat Action Ribbon.
